Goat

Strapping Young Lad

work expectations bind the holy to the wrong reflecting what they'll never be sing out, pay out another day has come and gone get used to the feeling of rottingjust watch it, goat boy you watch it, you're a goatdown in the rust steel yard a goat boy loses limb no need to feed old nan and kids old buck he pumps it up, to keep his life from getting low then back to compo when he's homejust watch the goat boy just watch it, you're a goat let me hear the goat boy talk! don't judge me, goat boy
