For You

Jaime Jamgochian

Here I am once again,
broken on my knees.
And the only thing I ask,
use me as You please.

Take my heart, take my voice.
Take every part of me.
Lift it up above the noise.

I sing for You, I sing for You,
I sing for You my King.
I sing for You, only You.
When no one's listening,
I sing for You.

I have tried so hard to please,
every heart but Yours.
I have fallen from that place,
I first beheld Your face.

But Your love and Your grace
is calling me back,
calling me back.
To the place I'm meant to be.

I live for You, I live for You,
I live for You my King.
I live for You and only You,
all my life and offering.
I live for You.

The only thing that really matters now,
is giving every breath for Your renown
Your renown.

It's all for You,
everything I do.
Its all for You, Jesus
What ever I go through.

I live for You, I live for You.
I live for You my King.
I live for You and only You,
all my life and offering.

I sing for you,
I sing for you.
With all my heart

I sing for You,
I live for You,
I worship You Lord.

Oh with all i am.
You're my everything,
You're my desire.
