Dumb Dumb

Rachel Stevens

You're dreaming 'bout a girl
Who lives her life in plastic
A sequined kinda world
It sounds a life fantastic, yeahShe lets you think that she's acting kinda stupid
Looks good in pink and she knows just how to use it
Her dance with diamonds brings a sparkle to the music
Her life is sleeping under her skin...And all she wants is love
And all she wants is dumb da da da
Searching for a touch
That's more than just a dumb da da da
Hides behind a heart
Yet all we see is dumb da da da
You could give her love, love, love...Oh ooh oh...Behind the masquerade
Between the smoke and mirrors
Her teardrops will explode
Into the night that glitters, yeah
You see she's sacrificed her image for her beauty
But looking deeper you can see that she's unhappy
You can kiss her, you can wake her from her sadness
Her life is living under her skinAnd all she wants is love
And all she wants is dumb da da da
Searching for a touch
That's more than just a dumb da da da
Hides behind her heart
And all we see is dumb da da da
You could give her love, love, loveLove, love, loveOh ooh oh
Her life is living under her skinAnd all she wants is love
And all she wants is dumb da da da
Searching for a touch
That's more than just a dumb da da da
Hides behind her heart
Yet all we see is dumb da da da
You could give her love, love, loveAnd all she wants is love
And all she wants is dumb da da da
Searching for a touch
That's more than just a dumb da da da
Hides behind her heart
dumb da da da
You could give her love, love, love
