No More

Deep Blue Something

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I met myself at my own gravesideI remember looking tiredBut somehow I convinced myselfThat one of us had died
So I asked me then what I would haveIf hell began right nowI said an old guitar and a bottle of wineA book of verse and vowCHORUS:No more, no moreNo moreNo more, no more promisesA year went by and I lost my soulInsanity crept in
And I will be the first to claimI'd thought I found a friendBut he took more than offeredIn four more years I looked up
And I lost me in the endAnd I saw that I was himCHORUSCold on the outside
Let me inThen it never ends as friends
We start the year as loversOne more hourShe took me down
I said I love you
But I liedCHORUS
