

I Am an Outsider

Three Days Grace

I'm on the outside looking through
I know I'm not the same as you
I'd rather be faceless than ignored
Than be in the in-crowd this before
A way to fit in just a little more I am an outsider
I don't care about the in-crowd, no
Better off on my own now
I am an outsider
I don't care about the in-crowd, no
I'm better off on my own now
I don't wanna be anybody's seem
I don't believe in what you believe
I'd rather be faceless in the dark
Than be so fake like the way you are
Yeah that's why I stay so far away from you I am an outsider
I don't care about the in-crowd, no
Better off on my own now
I am an outsider
I don't care about the in-crowd, no
I'm better off on my own now There comes a time we draw the line
Decide we're better off on the outside, better off on the outside
There comes a time we draw the line
Decide we're better off on the outside
I am an outsider
I don't care about the in-crowd, no
Better off on my own now
I am an outsider
I don't care about the in-crowd, no
I'm better off on my own now
