

Year of Summer

Paradise Lost

There's two arms you could break
How low can you descend?
Approach the subject kindly
You've chosen to defend
Those tears are not for real
They're falling on command
A harsh decision maybe
You're living on remand Your mind is thinking madness
Much more you could not take
Before you fall on bad days
And lover-tour defense as always Suddenly demanding, choose not
To feed on all this sadness My stomach tends to fold
When I speak of your name
Accept that you're regretful
Accept that you're not safe Your life is contradiction
A life that's bruised and torn
I've chosen toleration, you've chosen
To dismiss as always Suddenly demanding, choosing not
To feed on all this sadness
Suddenly demanding, choosing not
To feed on all this sadness Suddenly demanding, the truth is always Worse when you are sober This sadness is my own
