If I Was Your World

Syleena Johnson

Truth is sometimes you get on my nerves
When you act like, you act like you know it all
You walk you're God's gift to earth
And I swear that my patience you just use it all
I have more than enough reasons to say goodbye now
If I haven't left you by nowJust know my love
Don't quit when the road gets rough
Not giving up
It's clear to see, we're meant to be
Thank God that we're not afraid of loveJust know my love,
Just know my love
It won't quit when the road gets tough
Not giving up
It's clear to see, we're meant to be
Sponsored linksThank God that we ain't afraid of loveTruth is when in world
I see the way your head turns
I know a man's gonna be a man
Less that much if you were grown
And the grass always seems greener
'Till you bottle your own
Baby you got what you need right at homeI have more than enough reasons to say goodbye now
If I haven't left you by nowJust know my love
Don't quit when the road gets rough
Not giving up
It's clear to see, we're meant to be
Thank God that we're not afraid of loveJust know my love,
Just know my love
It won't quit when the road gets tough
Not giving up
It's clear to see, we're meant to be
Thank God that we ain't afraid of lovePutting all my cards down, I'm all in
You got my heart now
Tell me that you miss
That you won't quit
Baby all I want is your love
Yeah, yeah
Don't quit when the road gets tough
Not giving up
It's clear to see, we're meant to be

Thank God that we're not afraid of loveJust know my love,
Just know my love
It won't quit when the road gets tough
Not giving up
It's clear to see, we're meant to be
Thank God that we ain't afraid of love
Not giving up
It's you and me,
It's clear to see, we're meant to be
Just know my love,
Not giving up
Thank God that we're not afraid of love
My love
