

Lucky One

Agents of Good Roots

Lyrics: winn

Music: winnLyrics:I'm looking through the window

Looking around

For memories bound

In a scrapbookI'm trying to remember

What was the date

When fate hit the stake

And was burned down(chorus):

But let me tell you you're the lucky one

You're the only one

Good God you're the lucky one

You're the only one

But oh, my eyes can't see

What's come over meI'm flipping through the scriptures

Thinking I'm wise

It's all a disguise

Or illusionI'm bitching 'bout my staircase

It's twisted in knots

It climbs and it stops

And I'm nowhere(chorus)(chorus)

What's come over me

What's come over me
