Jimmy Eat World

"Straight outta Phoenix boys."

Stay up late and listen in.

Trading insult for your time.

It breaks my heart in half to see her jumping up and down screaming: "Cash in honey, cash in now."

Lift your hands up slow.

If only you could see yourself.

Everything you are imitate and water down. Just because you'll never have your politics with perfect means,

Doesn't mean you talk the round and round.

Forsdale's syringe is wearing so thin.

Lift your hands up slow. If only you could see yourself.

Everything we are imitate and water down.

They'll never know your world no matter how they try.

It's your world.
