

To the End

Woman's Hour

Suppose it was too soon,
Falling in too deep.
Nothing but love for you
Here without someone I know. Never too close,
Always uncertain...
Take everything you know
And go with me to the end. Only if you ever wanted
Me to be someone else
But I know, seem the same to you.
I'll stay with you till the end. Not leaving time to grow
Not much left unsaid.
Heavy thoughts and
How quietness is long-lasting. Only if you ever wanted
Me to be someone else
But I know, seem the same to you.
I'll stay with you till the end. Only if you ever wanted
Me to be someone else
But I know, seem the same to you.
I'll stay with you till the end. Only if you ever wanted
Me to be someone else
But I know, seem the same to you.
I'll stay with you till the end.
