So Long I'm Gone

49 Winchester

My last pack of cigarettes is gone, oh yeah but so are you. And all these empty bottles don't help my mind so much, but then again neither did you la da da da da. So don't don't speak of me truth and modesty love, cause I refuse to pay your saints. You bought this all upon yourself my love, and left me here to take the blame. And don't, don't you count on me. It'll be your crutch oh baby not anymore. And don't, said that I am gone, yeah I'm walking I'm walking out the door. So long, I said so long, well you know so long baby I'mma gonna be gone. So long, I said so long, yeah you know so long baby I'mma gonna be gone. I'm as far as she's wise. I guess you got the heartache in your eyes. Keep on doing what I've always done (no). Just be alone, just be alone, just be alone. Well I'll walk through the desert without water, but not for some poor bastards daughter. She don't want no part of me (no), she don't want no part of me. And I'm gone, don't count on me. It'll be your crutch oh baby not anymore. Oh, I'm gone, said that I am gone. Yeah I'm walking, I'm walking out the door. I said so long, I said so long, oh you know so long baby I'mma gonna be gone. Oh so long, I said so long, yeah you know so long baby I am gone. And don't, don't count on me, it'll be your crutch baby not anymore. Oh, and don't, said that I am gone, but I'm walking I'm walking out the door. I said so long, oh yeah so long baby so long. I'mma gonna be gone. So long, I said so long, so long baby I am gone.

Lyrics Submitted by That kid

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/