Redundant

Spargo Postle

We're livin' in a repetition
Content in the same old stick again
Now the routine's turnin' to a contention
Like a production line goin' over and over and over roller coasterNow I cannot speak, I lost my voice
I'm speechless and redundant
'Cause I love you's not enough
I'm lost for wordsChoreographed and lack of passion
Prototypes of what we were
Went full circles 'til I'm nauseous
Taken for granted now
I'm wasted, faked it, ate it, now I hate it'Cause I cannot speak, I lost my voice
I'm speechless and redundant
'Cause I love you's not enough
I'm lost for wordsNow I cannot speak, I lost my voice
I'm speechless and redundant
'Cause I love you's not enough
I'm lost for wordsNow I cannot speak, I lost my voice
I'm speechless and redundant
'Cause I love you's not enough
I'm lost for words
