Western Volado

Juan Castelazo

I'm facing to the wall
no more
and I hope your cold heart is mended

war isn't over no
don't know
if its me who wont surrender anger blinds right through me things i'm not bound to be I cant see that pain consumes my time to shine

to be fine

seems like you've given up to show
interest in your investment

when the only thing iÂ´ve done my love
is renounce to what i'm obsessed with freedom was my duty breaking my own truth in giving everything i've got however slender

or large in fact
