

Night In Sarajevo

Jessica Vale

Sarajevo, am I alone here?
Is this wet from desire or is it fear?
Cheek to the ground, sand in my teeth
You've ripped out my skin and the pride underneath So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo Has your heart stopped beating and does your blood run cold?
Do you feel safer since your mind's been sold?
There's no more flowers, it's nothing new
There's no together, just me and you So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo
So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo You've wrecked my beauty through years of war
Though it hurts, I still want more
I'll submit to you, my body is yours
It's my mind you're after, to rape and deplore So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo
So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo Do I want you because I fear you?
I should run but I need you So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo
So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo
So I wait here patiently
For you to kill me, Sarajevo
