Copycat

Switchblade Symphony

Catch the thief
Bring him home so he won't everBreak in
Give your hands
To an enemy, smile and ask how
They've beenYour sewing machine, it won't slow
Initiate, and then you'll imitate
[?] you know the rats do swoon
The sweet melodies they follow, followCopycat, chameleon
Mosquito bite, mosquito bite
Copycat, chameleonMosquito bite, mosquito bite
An innovator with nothing new to say
You think that you were first in line today
You think you are the one who started that,But you're nothing more than a Copycat
CopycatBut where's your crown, Plain Jane
Copycat, a media machine
You get your voice from a star magazine,
You play a sorry queen
You're running lateYour sewing machine, it won't slow
Initiate, and then you'll imitate
[?] you know the rats do swoon
The sweet melodies they follow, follow
Copycat, chameleonMosquito bite, mosquito bite
Copycat, chameleonMosquito bite, mosquito bite
Mosquito bite, mosquito bite
