Don't Fake This

Chevelle

Ignoring a loss of sight Afraid to blink

I might lose the sunBut don't make this out to be more

Than it isn't behind every lie

An' there's a burden within Yes, you're my son This suffering

That's kept within

Disposable men

LostInside he was negative

This place once more

Was undergroundSo look and connect

We're refusing to rust

Healing has to begin in the pastSo don't fake this

Don't fake this

Don't fake this

Don'tThis suffering

That's kept within

Disposable men

LostDon't fake this

Don't fake this

Don't fake this

Don'tFake

Fake

FakeThis suffering

That's kept within

Disposable men

LostSo don't fake this

Don't fake this

Don't fake this

Don'tFake

Fake

Fake
