Love, Not for Me

Babylonia

The sailor fighting the ocean
Love, it's not worth anything
The sinner chasing devotion
Love, it's not worth anythingLove seeks and finds me
Just to hit and paralyze me
It overwhelms me
As heavenly as could be
The most intriguing fatal lie
The sweetest of deceits in disguiseTame me, use me, please me, tease me, break me, hate me and pierce me to the bone
Tame me, use me, please me, tease me, break me, hate me and rip away my soul
'cos I live in love, I live to love, I live for love
Tame me, use me, please me, tease me, break me, hate me as far as I can see Love, not for meWith all those hidden subtle tricks
Love, it's not worth anything
Puzzling paradoxes
Love, it's not worth anythingLove calls my name
And I'm rushing once again
It crucifies me
It tempts and mesmerizes me
The most deceptive and sweet trap
A journey that we live without a mapHunger for a yearning
I feed my soul burning
And I give in
Yes, I give in
