

Vagabonds

The Classic Crime

I can't get enough of livin' in the city I get off the bus at Dexter and Denny
the sun's coming up over the lake to my east yeah and I feel the love in the rhythm and the music of the street yeah
no one is gonna take that away from me so I pick up a real change paper as I walk on down the street yeah, because vagabonds and troubadours built this city on punk rock chords and I for one cannot ignore the facts
yeah
so we will make music
'til no one refuses
we will take our airwaves back yeah, come on! in the jet's city of love northwest in the evergreen state people can't enough of living in the darkness and the rain but when the sun comes up the streets are filled with songs of people playing it loud so the whole world can sing along
yeah
and the cops go screaming by on the 99 and there's a man with a smile and his guitar on and he's holding a sign and it says vagabonds and troubadours
built this city on punk rock chords
and I for one cannot ignore the facts
yeah
so we will make music
'til no one refuses
we will take our airwaves back yeah, come on!
come on!

yeah!

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>