

As I Become One

Crowbar

Crawl back from the dead
Set me free at last
Forevermore
Taste the freedom Now I can be one
Spirit rising up
Into the clouds
Ride the winds of change Hand of death, letting me go
I'm reinventing the man
That you all thought was gone Crawl back into life
Death grip on my soul forever more
Taste the new life Now I've become one
I am rising up into the sky
Ride the winds of change Hand of death, letting me go
I'm reinventing the man
That you all thought was gone Ride the winds of change Hand of death, letting me go, letting me go
I'm reinventing the man
That you all thought was gone
