

Soldier (feat. Roxanne Emery)

Gareth Emery

I'm gonna stand right here, I'm not gonna move
And when the sky falls down, you'll find me next to you
I'm gonna stand right here, and wait for your voice
And when the world's at war, you know we've got no choice
When you hear the sound of the world on fire and all that you can see is a brick-red sky
when you know you can't make it on your own
I will be your soldier
When you're falling down, and you're on the fence
I will be your shield I will keep you safe
When you know you can't make it on your own
I will be your soldier
