Ten Steps

Lucy Love

I got a secret I'm dying to tell you
You're sound asleep, I don't wanna wake you
I'm about to break your heart and you don't know
You don't know
I've got my suitcase it's locked and loaded
And just in case you haven't noticed
I'm about to break your heart or so I hope
So I hope
Ten steps from your bed to your door
Ten steps and I'll see you no more
I've tried and I, can't cry tonight
I've tried and I, can't cry tonight
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
You look sweet like when I first saw you
Heaven knows how I once adored you
I'm about to kiss your mouth one last time

No dream under your eyelashes
Could ever prepare you for this
I'm about to break your heart like you broke mine
Ten steps from your bed to your door
Ten steps and I'll see you no more
I've tried and I, can't cry tonight
I've tried and I, can't cry tonight
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Ten steps from your bed to your door
Ten steps and I'll see you no more
I've tried and I, can't cry tonight
I've tried and I, can't cry tonight
Five steps from your door to my car
Tiptoeing across the front yard
Don't move you stay right where you are
