Any Minute Now

Soulwax

Run, think fast
It'll catch up with you
Any minute now'Cause it's not my style
To cover up so hurry up
Any minute nowNames you drop
Verberate and deafen me
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?Whatever you hold back for me
Whatever I try to tell you
It lives on the outside of truthWhatever you think it might be
Whatever I want to believe
It lives on the outside of meSeek and hide
You never know what you will find
Any minute nowTrust in them
Shall we begin again?
Any minute nowWhatever you hold back for me
Whatever I try to tell you
It lives on the outside of truthWhatever you think it might be
Whatever I want to believe
It lives on the outside of me
