

Hollywood Tonight

Michael Jackson

Lipstick in hand
Tahitian tanned
in her painted on jeans She dreams of fame
She changed her name
To one that fits the movie screen
She's headed for the big time, that means She's going Hollywood
She's going Hollywood tonight
She's going Hollywood
She's going Hollywood tonight
She's going Hollywood
She's going Hollywood tonight
It's true, that you, may never ever have that chance again West bound Greyhound
To tinsel town
Just to pursue her movie star dreams
She's giving hot tricks to men just to get in
When she was taught that that's not clean
She's headed for the big time, that means She's going Hollywood
She's going Hollywood tonight
She's going Hollywood
She's going Hollywood tonight
She's going Hollywood
She's going Hollywood tonight
It's true, that you, may never ever have that chance again (that chance again) [Spoken words:]
She gave up her life, to follow her dreams
Left behind everything, for the movie scene
Nothing more she could want, she was determined to follow her plan
She wanted Hollywood, she wanted it bad
Now that she got her dream, she became a star
It all looked so good, but only good from afar Imprisoned in every paparazzi's camera, every guy wished they could Now it's back to reality, for Ms. Hollywood Lipstick in hand
Tahitian tanned
in her painted on jeans She dreams of fame
She changed her name
To one that fits the movie screen
She's headed for the big time, that means She's going Hollywood
She's going Hollywood tonight
She's going Hollywood

She's going Hollywood tonight
She's going Hollywood
She's going Hollywood tonight
It's true, that you, may never ever have that chance again (that chance again)(You know it baby)
West bound Greyhound
To tinsel town
Just to pursue her movie star dreamsWest bound Greyhound
To tinsel town
Just to pursue her movie star dreams(You know it baby)
West bound Greyhound
To tinsel town
Just to pursue her movie star dreamsWest bound Greyhound
To tinsel town
Just to pursue her movie star dreams(She's Hollywood x 10)
