Nana

The 1975

I wish you'd walk in again
Imagine if you just did
I'd fill you in on the things you missed
Oh sleepless nights, a grown up man dressed in white
Who I thought might just save your life
But he couldn't, so you diedI don't like it, now you're dead
It's not the same when I scratch my own head
I haven't got the nails for it
And I know that God doesn't exist
And all of the palaver surrounding it
But I like to think you hear me sometimesSo I reached for a borrowed fleece
From my dad, or from Denise
Always trying to keep warm, when you're the sunI sat with you beside your bed and cried
For things that I wish I'd said
You still had your nose red
And if I live past 72, I hope I'm half as cool as youI got my pen and thought that I'd write
A melody and line for you tonight
I think that's how I make things feel alrightMade in my room, this simple tune
Will always keep me close to you
The crowds will sing their voices ring
And it's like you never leftBut I'm bereft you see
I think you can tell
I haven't been doing too well
