

Lose the Fear

Feeder

Come back in
As love gets thin and leaves you dry
Found that space
Only to owe you back inside You're fading like someone who's given up on life
And all you've ever left behind the scars that burn inside
You're wishing for someone a taste of something better
Lose that fear Lose that fear
Lose that fear
Lose that fear Till it came
Born to break in someday soon
Lose that fear
'Cause nothing's easy in this world You're fading like someone who's given up on life
And all you've ever left behind
The scars that burn inside you're wishing for someone
A taste of something better, lose that fear Lose that fear
Lose that fear
Lose that fear
Lose that fear
Lose that fear
