Walk Away

Major League

I never thought I'd hear you say
If you love me you would let me go
But then you walked away you walked away

I never thought I'd hear you say
If you love me you would let me go
But then you walked away you walked away

I walked into your house to a note in my name
It said I'll never grow up, You said you don't feel the same
You took all my things and you left me for dead
Just like the novelty books you keep under your bed

Just when you thought I'd never figure you out
I'm not leaving this way; With a handful of doubt
I'd opened my eyes to you it's allegedly close
And saw through your words they're carved and written in stone

I never thought I'd hear you say
If you love me you would let me go
But then you walked away you walked away

I never thought I'd hear you say
If you love me you would let me go
But then you walked away you walked away

Months from now you split open the seams for your own amusement
Just so you can see, Just so you can see
That everything you thought was everything I turned out to be Deep inside was scattered remnants of what we used to be

Just when you thought I'd never figure you out
I'm not leaving this way; With a handful of doubt
I'd opened my eyes to you it's allegedly close
And saw through your words they're carved and written in stone

I never thought I'd hear you say
If you love me you would let me go
But then you walked away you walked away

I never thought I'd hear you say
If you love me you would let me go
But then you walked away you walked away

Just tell me I was yours and what was yours was mine
All of this was all my fault so I'll let you go this time

I never thought I'd hear you say
If you love me you would let me go
But then you walked away you walked away

I never thought I'd hear you say
If you love me you would let me go
But then you walked away you walked away
