

See What a Fool Iâ€™ve Been

Queen

Well, she's gone, dear, gone this morning
See what a fool I've been
Oh Lord, what a fool I've been
Yes, I did too much Didn't leave, didn't leave no letter
Didn't leave no warning (you naughty thing you)
I guess I'm all to blame, oh Lord
I guess I'm all to blame (see you later... right now you)
Take it My little dog ain't too hungry, no, no; he just kept on barking
Viciously
Just don't seem the same, oh, no, no
It just don't seem the same (oh, see you later) Now hit it like that Coming on strong Well, I got so lonely
Went and told my neighbor
She said, "mm, mm, mm, mm, mm."
Oh Lord, what a fool I've been
And she told me what to do
She said, "go home." Well, she's gone, gone this morning
See what a fool I've been, oh Lord
What a fool I've been

Songwriters

May, Brian Harold Published by

Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>