The Reign

Tarja

I see the waves of sand
Big free, another land
Dreams within dreams, you are alive
They gave me their wings, I spread them wideI'll move on to another place
From my memories unmade
I'll hold on and my heart will find you there
Love will shine free foreverSun flames and moons glow
Timeless the tides will flow
What will I face? What will be mine?
Fortune and fate, the other sideI'll move on to another place
From my memories unmade
I'll hold on and my heart will find you there
Love will shine free forever
