Summer Sun

Blank & Jones

Remember the long days singing through palm leaves
Remember the ocean air
Wearin' our brown skin sprinkled with sea breeze
Wind blowing through your August hair
Summer sun, nothin' but time to waste
We were young, both of us takin' a chance on love
Under the sun, summer sun
You held me tightly, I kissed you softly
Sweeter than lemonade
Learning the hours, learning each other
Suddenly finding how to be
Summer sun, nothin' but time to waste

We were young, both of us takin' a chance on love
Under the sun, summer sun
And when day faded into starlight
You and the moon at midnight
Nowhere I'd rather be
Summer sun, nothin' but time to waste
We were young, both of us takin' a chance on love
Under the sun, under the sun
Summer sun, nothin' but time to waste
We were young, both of us takin' a chance on love
Under the sun, summer sun
