The Way That We Are

Scars on 45

In the blinded I parade
You're the only one I see
We have ventured far and wide
In the hope that you'll believe
That every waking day we find
Will reveal an open doorYou turned my life around
But I don't need you anymoreWe risked our lives on a feeling
It could all work out
Realize that you're wrong when you're leaving
And nothing you do could change itWell maybe I could say what you say
And if only I could do as you do
It's all in the way that we are
We'll always be the reason we looseI can feel the sting in your stare
You'll never see the hole in my heart
But whatever, you didn't carry me this farWell I could hide my love away as we walk with head in hands
When every lesson learned could be the reason why you ran
And now your only hope is with the only friend you'll see
With friends as good as yours
There's no need for enemiesWe risked our lives on a feeling
It could all work out
Realize that you're wrong when you're leaving
And nothing you do can change itWell maybe I could say what you say
If only I could do as you do
It's all in the way that we are
We'll always be the reason we looseI can feel the sting in your stare
You'll never see the hole in my heart
But whatever, you didn't carry me this farWe have fought in the pouring rain
Just to hide our tears
The only thing you gave to me
Is a feeling that I've lost (yes)
Couldn't turn my days around of believing what you say
Without walking outWe risked our lives on a feeling
It could all work out
Realize that you're wrong when you're leaving
And nothing you do can change itWell maybe I could say what you say
If only I could do as you do
It's all in the way that we are
We'll always be the reason we looseI can feel the sting in your stare
You'll never see the hole in my heart

But whatever, you didn't carry me this farWe risked our lives on a feeling
It could all work out
Realize that you're wrong when you're leaving
And nothing you do can change itWell maybe I could say what you say
If only I could do as you do
It's all in the way that we are
We'll always be the reason we looseI can feel the sting in your stare
You'll never see the hole in my heart
But whatever, you didn't carry me this far
