

Assurance

Piamime

I've seen the way you look at me
I've seen you waiting patiently
 I'm fine... well, i lied
If what we are is feeling low
 I'd fear this if i had a soul
 But you're still mine
 I was afraid of being chained
I found a woman who could mend and bend
 All of my deepest insights and thoughts
 And it's just one more round, one more
 One more round then i'm done
 But you need assurance that Everything's gonna be fine
 'cause you're just a woman who's Everything good in my life
 Though we'd been over, weeping over,
 Our last goodbyes.
I have learned to live with these fatal gifts,
 And still you're mine, so i'm...

 And i wrote you this song
 But you won't sing along to me
 Sing tir na li
 The memories that used to be
 Are carved into a sweet gum tree
 Outside my place, where i touched your face
 And it was...
 One more round, one more
 One more round, than I'd loved before.
 Still you need assurance that everything's gonna be fine
 'cause you're just the women who's everything good in my life
 And though we've been over, weeping over
 Our last goodbyes
 I've learned to live with these fatal gifts
 And still you're mine
 So i... so i wrote you this song
 But you won't sing along to me
 To sing tir na li
