

On My Own (Giuseppe D's Pumpin' Piano Edit)

Reina

Oh hey

Lately I find myself putting on the same clothes everyday

Trying to recapture the way it went

And I find myself crying in my bed, lying like I'm dead

I'm crazy in my head and all I knowThat the days run out and my heart is back

And my soul is lost in a maze of hateI don't wanna feel this hurt, I don't wanna feel this pain

I don't wanna be in silence but you took my words away

I don't wanna be insane, I don't wanna be alone

But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownLately I find myself sleeping alone with my phone

Hoping to hear your voice say that I'm coming home

And I find myself rearranging my thoughts

Reversing this heart, returning from being lostAnd I know that the days run out and my heart is back

And my soul is lost in a maze of hateI don't wanna feel this hurt, I don't wanna feel this pain

I don't wanna be in silence but you took my words away

I don't wanna be insane, I don't wanna be alone

But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownHow am I gonna freeze tomorrow

When it doesn't seem fair?

And you left me with the scar of such sorrow

You don't even careWell I don't wanna feel this hurt

And I don't wanna feel this painI don't wanna feel this hurt, I don't wanna feel this pain

I don't wanna be in silence but you took my words away

I don't wanna be insane, I don't wanna be alone

But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownI don't wanna feel this hurt, I don't wanna feel this pain

I don't wanna be in silence but you took my words away

I don't wanna be insane, I don't wanna be alone

But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my own
