Lives her life stretched out on a bar
She wants to know who ever you are
She's a sweet potato, a real vibrator
Wants to ride on home in your car
(Woo)Been in this hell town for a week
At least I've ended up with a freak
She's a fine door banger, a big name hanger
Looking for that long lucky streak
Hot headed woman, she's not even human
Midnight is coming, your finest hour
Fortune will find you, leave the past behind you
Keep on moving around, woo, wooWears her hair like Hedy Lamar
She's driving in her Venus blue car
She's a stone cold diver, social climber
Deep inside you know she's a star
Lives her life stretched out on a bar
She wants to know the hell who you are
She's a stone cold diver, social climber
Deep inside you know she's a star
