Finch

i sink tonight
i'm down inside
crawling to the place i like to hide spinning around
fear me now
left you right til i'm upside down shadows dance on the wall
you sing to me sleeping
you're stupid
there's not coming around
it's too late
for apologies
it's too late
for this mess you've made again
run with me
you take the lead
I forget the world silently
no more songs
you wrote them all
so one more time around it's all your fault you're sailing on
that's okay
i'll learn to swim someday
you're stupid
there's no coming around
it's too late
for apologies
it's too late
go with me now
i've lost and i've found it
i've hit the ground
and i'm running
is it too late?
