Everyone Hates a Know-It-All (Acoustic Version)

Face to Face

In a flash I'll change the universe
Or at least the world I knew
I'm so sick and tired of watching those
Who say and never do
You're rightAnd this waiting seems to last for hours
As I wait impatiently
And it's hard to find the strength inside
To be who I should be
You're rightWhy should I believe the words
You're telling me are true?
It doesn't seem like anybody feels the way I doI'm not too proud to say when I was wrong
Everyone hates a know-it-all
