For You

Peter Bradley Adams

If your wandering ever leads you to a place where you dont know which road to choose leave your worries behind take the road that leads to mine and I'll be waiting there for youIf your dreaming ever wakes you and you find your dreaming wasn't true wipe the sleep from your eyes leave the nightmares behind and I'll dream a better dream for youIf your fortune ever fails you and you're down without a dime to see you through there's still luck that you can find you have a piece of mine yeah, I'll make a wish for youIf your lover ever leaves you and you find yourself with no one left to lose you dont have to be alone take the road that leads you home and I'll be waiting there for you.....I'll be waiting there for you
