

Jenny Wore Black

Men Without Hats

Jenny wore black
Jenny wore white - WHITE!
And jenny was real
But almost not quite
And jenny was here
She was almost inside
And jenny was real
But jenny was frightened by the way
We looked at her
And jenny could see
She was only a child
Jenny concealed all but her smile
And when she smiled we said hey HEY!
You'll never see clear with tears in your face hey!
You'll never see clearly anyway
I said I loved you blindly, and I do
We're only two strangers in ways
We shall say
Jenny wore black
Jenny wore white, WHITE!
And jenny was real but almost not quite (la la la la la la)
And jenny was here she was almost on time
And jenny was real
But jenny was frightened by the way
We looked at her
And jenny could see within us for a while
Jenny revealed all but her smile
And when she smiled we said hey HEY!
You'll never see clear with tears in your face hey!
You'll never see clearly anyway
I said I loved you blindly, and I do
We're only two strangers in ways
We should say
You always caught my eyes where
The dreams peter in
And I can't remember
Wherever I've been
There's still holes for my eyes
Where the dreams peter through

All I can remember
Is when I was with you
We say hey HEY!
You'll never see clear with tears in your face hey!
You'll never see clearly anyway
I said I loved you blindly, and I do
We're only two strangers in ways
We shall say

Songwriters

DOROSCHUK, IVANPublished by

Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>