

My Kind of Scene

Powderfinger

Tell me where I'm supposed to begin
An unhappy life working some kind of dead end job
For everything you thought you had
Has gone from worse to bad
Lean to the side whisper it quiet
The end is in sight to working all night around the clock
For everything you thought you had
Has gone from worse to bad
But it's not my kind of scene, oh yeah
Footprints on the other side
Remind me where I've been, oh yeah
I'll watch from the other side
Tell me where I'm supposed to begin
Move out of sight and onto some life I'm dreaming of
For everything you thought you had
Has gone from worse to bad
So I'll just wait and watch the wheels
While you're turning back
But it's not my kind of scene, oh yeah
Footprints on the other side
Remind me where I've been, oh yeah
I'll watch from the other side
Pulls me over and it drags me under
Pulls me over and it drags me under
Tell me where I'm supposed to begin
An unhappy life working
Alright now, alright now
Alright now, alright now
But it's not my kind of scene, oh yeah
Footprints on the other side
Remind me where I've been, oh yeah
I'll watch from the other side
Alright now, alright now
I'll watch from the other side
Alright now, alright now
I'll watch from the other side
