Mirror Image

Ducktails

I'll get up this morning
Read about all my plans
Read about vacations
With my latest man
Everything I did
What I should have done
Why I didn't stay
Why I didn't run
Only I hold the key
To unlock the door
I might make mistakes
I've made them before
Things I hear about
My life as a book
Things I'd rather forget
But they force me to look
Mirror image, mirror image
If it isn't in black and white
(It never happened)
Mirror image, reflections of me
Do you see what I want you to see?
Looking at my life
Through a mirror image
Through a mirror image
Must I confess
Everything that I've done
Can't a girl go out
And have herself some fun
I don't want to be judged
I don't want the blame
Living for today
Is how I play the game

There's always a dream
There's always a stage
Somebody's looking
Now it's on the front page
Through my rear view mirror
I can see where I've been

I forgot the beginning
And I can't see the end
Mirror image, mirror image
If you see it in black and white
(Do you believe it?)
Mirror image, reflections of me
Do you see what I want you to see?
Looking at my life
Through a mirror image
Through a mirror image
You've got me wrong
That's not what I said
All of these stories
I'm reading instead
The party last night?
I thought I was in bed
Mirror image
Mirror image
Mirror image, mirror image
If it isn't in black and white
(It never happened)
Mirror image, reflections of me
Do you see what I want you to see?
Looking at my life
Through a mirror image
Through a mirror image

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/