Moment In The Sun

The Living End

This is the right time
This is the right placeLiving underneath a gray cloud
When nothing ever changes
I couldn't be any less proud
The heart of this town has grown cold
I'm gonna get out before I get too old
There in a better time than now'Cause all that we ever hear
Is things will be better come next year
They never, ever get any better
And I don't care what you've got in store
Because I'm not gonna wait anymore
This is our moment in the sun
This is our time to run
Because there's nothing left for us here
There's nothing left for us anymoreSo please don't be concerned
If we never return
There's nothing left for us here anymoreThere's no future for us here in this place
And no one ever changes
They're all living in yesterday
And we never impressed them
Maybe we never willWe're either running too fast
Or standing too still
We made up our minds
There's nothing now to make us stay
'Cause all that we ever hear
Is things will be better come next year
They never, ever get any better
And I don't care what you've got in store
Because I'm not gonna wait anymoreThis is our moment in the sun
This is our time to run
Nothing left for us anymorePlease don't be concerned
If we never return
There's nothing left for us hereWell, this is the right place
And this is the right time
For our moment in the sun
Moment in the sun, goAnd I don't care what you've got in store

Because I'm not gonna wait anymore
No, I don't care what you've got in store
Because I'm not gonna wait anymoreThis is our moment in the sun
This is our time to run
There's nothing leftAnd don't pretend to be concerned
If we never return
There's nothing left for us hereYou were born here
Will you die here?
There's nothing left for us hereYou were born here
But will you die here?
There's nothing left for us hereAnd I don't care what you've got in store
Because I'm not gonna wait
Around here anymore
