Mirage

Groundbreaking

Go ahead, expect my best
I guess I'm perfect and
I'm never gonna break you down
So this is it
And all I could
It's just not good enough and
No way I could ever know how
Take it all on myself
You know I need it now
What you thought you had was
Never really me at allAh-All
It's just a mirage
Everything I've said
Means nothing at all
Your closest friend was somebody else
Who got too lost
Now I see through all your pretty lies
Where everything is fine
Now that I've opened my eyes x2You killed all of my sense
You think that makes you great
You're not the first who thought
They had me down and
Set my fate
Well let me tell you now
This shell is strong as steel
There's no way, there's no how
I could ever feelYou are everything I hate
When I realize
You're empty cold and fake(Chorus)Now that I've opened my eyesYou are everything I hate
When I realize
You're empty cold and fake(Chorus)Now that I've opened my eyes
