Loretta

Blind Willies

Verse:
Listen up Loretta to the rest of what I say
Iâ€™ve got something to share that bears repeating and it canâ€™t wait
I know that youâ€™re much older and Iâ€™m lacking every grace but my body begs your body to put it in itâ€™s place

Chorus:
Is that too real, can you handle it?
Is that too real, can you handle?

Verse:
Iâ€™m here to show you that my bond will never break
Send any curse Iâ€™ll leave it dying in my wake
For you Iâ€™d cut myself and cause the earth to shake
From us sweet tenderness no there is no escape

Chorus:
Is that too real, can you handle it?
Is that too real, can you handle?

Bridge:
Iâ€™ve got your headdress crossing my mind like a highway for 900 miles
I want you
Try to understand the distance between us is fading fast

Verse:
Forget about your mother, father, neighbors, and friends they say they want the best for you but it all depends whether or not they can make your good man buckle or bend
I wonâ€™t surrender no not ever even at the end

Chorus:
Is that too real, can you handle it?
Is that too real, can you handle?

Verse:
If Iâ€™m less than stable you can blame it on filthy lies
That all your admirers stitched together and brought to life

An abomination waking up right by your side
I know weâ€™re both better than that although we forget sometimes

Listen up Loretta Iâ€™ve got just one more point to make
I might be wrong but then again there's no mistake
The only thing I need more than money is your beautiful face
Iâ€™d cause an ocean of ships to sink every time they sail your way

Chorus:
Is that too real, can you handle it?
Is that too real, can you handle?

Bridge:
Deadly as lightning
Sharp as pain
We shoot through each other with furious rage
I want you
please understand
You canâ€™t escape what my blood demands
