

The Vampyre at My Side

Cradle of Filth

Accompanied by bloodshed
Neath the reaper's sallow crow
In league with fallen angels
Came a wolf unto my doorA portrait of perfection
Poten her siren song
I spread my dreams beneath her feet
And hade them royally pissed uponBurning with this itching sickness of a tortured soulShe exudes a lure more animal than human Intoxicating chemistry
Baiting masturbators with a dominant handshake
This wicked bitch
Cruella to the bone
Just ties me to her throne
She builts on endless lies Architect of my demiseBurning with the witching sickness of a tortured souldI shudder at her touch so wonderful
Snatch in maiden flight by a savage magnetShe's the boot heel kiss of annihilationGilded cunt worship
A world of hormones swarming south
As insects hived in her succulent skull
Make a beeline for the honey mouthMy life once breathed like a ouija board
Just ghosts of "yes" mostly ignored
So i wished for her and like tragedy to came Dispensing Haterd
Death emonst us all
The hypnotic guest that permeates the hall
Is a creature who has leached me, beautiful
And beguiling in enticing wishpersAnd lest she breaks the fall
Be prepared for shattered miracles
The moonhas never shone so red and terrible
As on that night my madness rose to kiss herStrife then seethed like a terrible sea
Burial in a life lost prematurely
Classic Poe had no horrors on me
When her claws had dug deep enoughOnce hurting, for certain
A curtain of dark ravens has risenBurning with the lifting sickness of a tortured soulIn the turn of her infernal final screws
Laughter masked Saturnalia
As the mallet in my linen wished her grin anewThat wicked bitch
Cruella to the bone
Just tied me to her throne

In ezaltation
She built on endless lies
Architect of my despise For i have lived through Sodom and tomorrow
And the vampyre at my side
