Solidarity

Black Uhuru

What's the matter, people?Solidarity, solidarityEverybody wants the same thing, don't they?
Everybody wants a happy end
They wanna see the game on Saturday
They wanna be somebody's friendEverybody wanna work for a living
Everybody wants their children warm
Everybody wants to be forgiven
They want a shelter from the stormLook at me, I ain't your enemy
We walk on common ground
We don't need to fight each other
What we need, what we needSolidarity, solidarity
Solidarity, solidarityNobody likes to ask for money
Somebody likes to play the clown
Nobody likes to wait in a long line
Nobody likes being pushed aroundEverybody wants their family protected
They wanna express themselves
Everybody wants to live foreverLook at me I ain't your enemy
Don't believe everything you hear
This is no time to fight each other
What we need, what we needSolidarity, solidarity
Solidarity, solidarity
Solidarity, solidarity
Solidarity, solidarity
Solidarity, solidarity
SolidarityHey, peopleEverybody wants the same thing, don't they?
Everybody wants a happy end
They wanna see the game on Saturday
They wanna be somebody's friendEverybody wants the same thing, don't they?
Everybody wants a happy end
They wanna see the game on Saturday
They wanna be somebody's friendEverybody wanna work for a living
They wanna keep their children warm
Everybody just wants to be forgiven
They want a shelter from the stormWhat we need, what we needSolidarity, solidarity
Solidarity, solidarity
Solidarity, solidarity
...

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/