Cheat Codes

Blonde hair with a sun dress
Cocaine on the lips
She's knew it til Los Angeles
Uh, not used to the lifestyle
Not used to the rules
Don't know where she can't handle itSo coming close and stay right by my side, side, side
Believe me, baby
In know what it's likeAnd she said home
It feels like home when I'm with you
Home
It feels like home when I'm with you
Leave it all behind
Lay your head on mine
Home
It feels like home when I'm with youFeels like home
Feels like homeSpend time like a Rolex
I'll order a car
Take here where she hasn't been, oh yeah
Undress at the coat check
Make out at the bar
She bad but she's innocentSo come in close and stay right by my side, side, side
Believe me, baby, I know what it's like, hmm
And she said home
It feels like home when I'm with you
Home
It feels like home when I'm with you
Leave it all behind
Put your head on mine
Home
It feels like home when I'm with youFeels like home
Feels like homeSo come in close and stay right by my side
Believe me, baby, I know what it's like
The truth is out here
People are ruthless
We started drinking rum and talking through the nightAnd she said home, ye-ye
Come a little closer, feels like home
Come a little, come a little
Oh, it feels like home
Oh, it feels like

Feels like home
