Ramada Inn

Neil Young & Crazy Horse

So many years now together?
All those good times, ups and downs
So many joys raising up those kids
Well they've moved on now, out of townSo many times she tried
So many times she criedEvery morning comes the sun
And they both rise into the day
Holding on to what they've doneShe loves him so
She loves him so
She loves him so
She does what she has toShe loves him so
She loves him so
She loves him so
She does what she needs toIn a Ramada Inn near the grapevine
They stop to rest for the night
Traveling down south looking for good times
Visiting old friends feels rightPeople they haven't seen him forever
Since high school, Santa Jose times
Restaurant food and the bottle
Had a few drinks
Now they're feeling fineEvery morning comes the sun
And they both rise to the day
Holding on to what they've doneHe loves her so
He loves her so
He loves her so
He does what he has toHe loves her so
He loves her so
He loves her so
He does what he needs toSeem like lately things are changing
Seems like lately things are going south
A few drinks now and she hardly knows him
He just looks away and he checks outAnd when she says "it's time for him to do something,
Maybe talk to his old friends who gave it up."
He just pours himself another tall one
Closes his eyes and says "that's enough"Every morning comes the sun
And they both rise to the day
Holding on to what they've doneShe loves him so
She loves him so
She loves him so
She does what she has toHe loves her so

He loves her so
He loves her so
He does what he needs toEvery morning comes the sun
And they both rise to the day
Holding on to what they've doneHe loves her so
He loves her so
He loves her so
He does what he needs toShe loves him so
She loves him so
She loves him so
She does what she has to
