Bad Woman

Fallen Angels

Bad woman, mad woman
Satisfy the man
Bad woman, mad womanEvery time that I see lovers
Look into each others eyes
I realize the best of my life was you
Now I left you with the blues
Or what we put each other through
Girl, we let good love blow away like sandBad woman, mad woman
Sleepless nights I call your name
You're the only one
To ever satisfy the manBad woman, mad woman
Sleepless nights I see your face
Girl, I reach for you
But only time's been spentHurry, now your plane is leaving
I'm not a fool in believing
You won't be there
Waitin' on the other sideGirl, I've had love and laughter
It's your love that I'm after
Two wrongs never make it rightLove will heal us
Love will make it rightBad woman, mad woman
Sleepless nights I call your name
You're the only one
To ever satisfy the manBad woman, mad woman
Sleepless nights I see your face
Girl, I reach for you
But only time's been spentHurry, now your plane is leaving
I'm not a fool in believin'
That you won't be there
Waitin' on the other sideGirl, I've had love and laughter
It's your love that I'm after
Two wrongs never make it rightBad woman, mad woman
Sleepless nights I call your name
You're the only one
To ever satisfy the manBad woman, mad woman
Sleepless nights I'll see your face
Girl, I reach for you
But only time's been spentBad woman, mad woman
Sleepless night I'll call your name
'Cause you're the only one to satisfy the man

Bad woman, mad woman
You know it's not about you, you're not there
And I wonder where you areBad woman, mad woman, yeah
Each night I'll call your name
And I wonder where you are
Bad woman, mad woman, bad woman
I will wait for you every nightShed a tear in the middle of the night
Feel around, look around but you're not there
You're not there, anywhere to be found
You bad, bad, bad, bad, bad, bad womanBad, bad, bad woman, bad woman
Satisfy the man
