Green On Blue

Marlango

Whisper whilst I'm
Still waiting in front of the door
I wait for you
Whisper your love and just
Pick up the days I drop alongMy life is seeping through my hands
And so
My blisters bleed out love
What holds you is not me
And I'll never close my door'Cause I want give you every time
What you find
In this mess that I amJust whisper
Your tiny voice
I know that the stars will shine across your eyes
I want to open you
And find what you're hiding inside
Just whisper
Just whisper
Just whisperJust whisper
I know that the stars will shine across your eyes
I want to open you
And find what you're hiding inside
Find a way to give myself
Find a way to give myself
Find a way to give all my love to you
