Somebody Paints The Wall

Tracy Lawrence

If my old truck was a horse I'd have to shoot it Lord, the day my ship came in I was waiting for a train Everytime I get a grip, I always lose it I can't find the sunshine for the rain And you know I'm always saying, "I'm sorry" But you stand by me through it all Seems everytime I make my mark Somebody paints the wall Everytime I think I'm off and runnin' I'm barely up, to a crawl Everytime I get a leg up On the ladder of success, I slip and fall Like last week down at the factory I was up for a promotion But the boss says, "Little brother, got the call" Seems everytime I make my mark Somebody paints the wall Everytime I think I'm off and runnin' I'm barely up, to a crawl Everytime I get a leg up On the ladder of success, I slip and fall Like last week down at the factory I was up for a promotion But the boss says, "Little brother, got the call" Seems like everytime I make my mark Somebody paints the wall Seems everytime I make my mark Somebody always paints the wall
