

Hope

Bjork

Here's my version of it, internal whirlwind
Here's my version of it, internal whirlwind
Here's my version of it, internal whirlwind
 What's the lesser of two evils
If a suicide bomber made to look pregnant
 Manages to kill her targets or not?
 What's the lesser of two evils?
 What's the lesser of two evils
 If she kills them or dies in vain?
Nature has fixed no limits on our hopes
 What's the lesser of two evils?
 What's the lesser of two evils
 If her bump was fake or if it was real?
Here's my version of it, internal whirlwind
 I have fostered since childhood
 Well, I don't care, love is all
I dare to drown to be proven right
